

I'm against the The New media Ownership policy. There should be more community control over the local media for the good of the community. No global media. we need local media because we have different local issues and problems and we can solve them locally by informing communities by a local radio or newspaper or TV station.